Nuts NEWS

CHAMPIONS LEAGUE EXCLUSIVE!

Lampard: 'We love being the underdogs!'

It's England versus Germany as a current Chelsea legend goes up against a Stamford Bridge old boy!

Hi Lamps! Can you defy all the odds and win the Champions League final?

We believe we can. A few months ago, no one believed we'd find ourselves in this position, so to get here is a big achievement. That said, it's no use patting ourselves on the back. We have to come away with a win.

How likely is a victory with half your team suspended?

It's going to be tough. I feel for the lads who are going to miss out but we'll just try to win the trophy for them. We have a really strong squad so I'm sure the boys coming in will do a job. The bond between everyone in the dressing room is first-class so we'll win or lose as a squad, not just because of certain individuals.

Given what you've come through to get this far, do you think fate is on your side?

Not at all. We'll only get a result if we show the same grit and determination that saw us through against Barcelona. We were underdogs then but showed what we're all about. We're a team that just never knows when we're beaten.

What will be the key to victory?

We'll throw everything we have at Bayern Munich. We won't come off the pitch wondering if only we'd done that or given a bit more – no regrets. In our dressing room there's an understanding of what it means to play for Chelsea and we'll bring that spirit into the final. Of course, we'll aim to be solid and play our brand of football but it'll depend on our mentality more than anything else.

Have performances over the last few months proved a lot of your critics wrong?

I still think we've fallen short. We're desperately disappointed at where we've ended up in the table. We only have ourselves to blame – it's just not good enough. But, yeah, we were definitely written off by a lot of people. We were either too old or divided as a group, they said. To be honest, that kind of talk never hurts us. In fact, it makes us stronger. We have a habit of proving people wrong.

How important is Didier Drogba to your hopes?

Didier is incredible, one of a kind. What he has done for this football club, year-in, year-out will never be repeated. He is, quite rightly, a hero among the fans but he also enjoys that same status among the players. When you talk about age, I think Didier's actually got better over the seasons. He'll be a big player for us in the final, both on and off the pitch.

Will winning the Champions League secure the manager's job for Roberto Di Matteo?

It wouldn't do any harm, would it? It's a difficult one because it's the club's decision, not the players'. All I can say is that Robbie has done wonders here. Almost immediately the results improved and that's down to the man. He is Mr Chelsea. He creates an atmosphere where the players are happy and confident. The results speak for themselves.

What about you? Is there life in the old dog yet?

It's been a tough season personally. Being in and out of the team was hard. I guess that's football though – the ups and downs come with the territory. My experience probably carried me through and now I feel good about my football again. I still feel strong and know I can contribute for a few years yet. Everyone talks about age, but if you're winning football matches it becomes a non-story.

Any predictions for the final?

No! We just want us to do ourselves justice. We've come a hell of a way in a short period of time and now we need to get over that final hurdle. It'll mean nothing unless we win the trophy. As I say, no regrets!

SUPER STADIUM!

When Munich's Allianz Arena is lit up at night, you can see it from Austria – about 65 miles away!

“We know what it means to play for Chelsea – we’ll take that into the final!”

His one-man Mexican wave idea was poor

Nuts NEWS

Robben: ‘I’ll ensure Chelsea lose!’

Hi Arjen! How does it feel to be going up against your old team?

It’s a very exciting proposition. I enjoyed my time there but that’s in the past. My job’s to ensure that Chelsea lose.

What kind of game do you think the Blues will bring?

We saw in the semi-final that they are a very professional defensive unit. They came with a strategy and executed it perfectly but we have the team to deal with anything they do.

What are Bayern’s strengths?

We have great technical players and have the desire to go the distance. In the last round when Madrid got tired, we became the dominant force. Whatever we face, we believe we can win.

How important do you think home advantage will be?

Ask me at the end of the game! Chelsea will believe they can climb another mountain, but everything’s in place for a special evening for us as long as we do what’s necessary.

Bayern are favourites for the trophy. Is this justified?

There’s no way Chelsea will be underestimated. They have an important spirit and many leaders. However, I aim to disappoint them in a big way.

Rihanna's pretty paddle!

Star surfs it up off the coast of Hawaii

THE LAST time we featured surfing on these here pages, it was gawping at American surfer Garrett McNamara taming a world-record 90ft-high wall of water. This week, our surfer is tackling a far more sedate body of wet stuff: the soft, glassy-calm breaks off Hawaii. And despite the context and equipment – paddle board, bikini and straw cowboy hat – these shots are not a jot less impressive than Garrett and his splashy-splashy showing off. World record or not!

Fifa 13 first look!

EA kicks off new footy season

IT'S AS inevitable as the night following day, poor form for international tournaments and Prem footballers cheating on their Wags. Fifa 13's been announced, alongside the yearly arms race of tweaks, upgrades and incremental, OCD-style polishes. Here are the six key areas that have been singled out for improvement, in time for the traditional October console release.

MORE INTELLIGENT AI PLAYERS!

Offensive AI has been improved so strikers move with the defensive "offside" line and make better runs off the ball.

THAT TRICKY FIRST TOUCH!

Fifa 13 will actually make the first touch harder, so a player's skill stats will be key to successfully controlling the ball.

Messi went for goal number
7,348 this season

WORDS: RORY BUCKERIDGE

FREE-KICK VARIETY!

An upgraded free-kick system will now include feint shots followed by a quick pass to a nearby player, like in real life.

"That's my mum.
I need my ball
back now, please!"

Van Persie's job application was going great guns!

BLOCK LIKE A PRO!

More defensive options will also be available at free-kicks, like adding players to your wall or extra players blocking.

COMPLETE DRIBBLING!

You'll no longer be able to unrealistically change direction while dribbling, even while playing with Messi, it seems.

"Whoa! These new helium boots are pretty cool!"

It was just lovely that Inter allowed ladies to play

IMPROVED IMPACT ENGINE!

There will be an end to the unrealistic player challenges, with new "impact values" added to hips and upper body.

A quick word with The Dictator

Admiral General Aladeen on Mel Gibson, fellow dictators and Kim Kardashian's downstairs hair!

Hi Admiral General Aladeen! Please sit down.

Sit down? Who is the fking dictator? Welcome, devils of the Zionist media. Today I wish to highlight the plight of dictators. These brave leaders are suffering daily brutality for the supposed crime of embezzling money, oppressing their people and doing a little bit of genocide.

Erm...

And on behalf of my dear friend President al-Assad of Syria, I want to thank the United Nations for their brave inaction over Syria. You guys are amazing. You've done next to nothing for the Syrian people. But you can always do less!

Right... thank you. Which celebrity do you have the most in common with?

Mel Gibson. In fact recently, in Wadiya, we made him our public relations expert. Although he's said some pretty offensive things. Like saying that he would work with Jews. I also have a lot in common with George Clooney – we are champions of equality. You know, in my country, women have the same rights as men. Absolutely none!

What do you think of the US film industry?

Well, I love American fantasy films like Lord Of The Rings or Schindler's List. Me and [Iranian leader] Ahmadinejad studied at the same Holocaust Denial Institute.

So, who are your favourite fellow dictators, and why?

I have lost a lot of good friends. Gaddafi, I miss you. Also, Kim Jong-il. Ahmadinejad is still around, but he's an embarrassment. I mean, he looks like a snitch on Miami Vice! Why does he not wear a tie? Does he think every day in Iran is casual Friday? WTF!

Your mother died in childbirth and all your brothers died accidentally. How did you deal with these traumas?

Yes, my mother died in childbirth. Of strangulation.

My father also died, in a tragic hunting accident when he was accidentally hit by 97 stray bullets. And my uncle is dying in a helicopter crash. Later on today. It will be sad.

What do you have to say to your critics who label you a tyrant?

I would say thank you! Also, could you give me the names and addresses of the critics? And their routes to and from work? I'd like to give them a magnetic gift. It attaches to the underneath of the car.

Are you a more dangerous dictator than Hitler?

Wow, to be in the same discussion as Hitler. I feel like I finally made it. My father knew Adolf. He barely had a good word to say about him. I remember him telling me that he was a terrible charades player. All the time cheating.

You're in constant danger. Who do you keep close to you, and who do you trust?

I have 25 female virgin guards who protect me. I know they're virgins as I have their virginity checked every night. By the head of my penis.

How do you plan to ensure that democracy will never take over your country?

Well, my people love me. And I have many signed confessions to that effect. I am like a father to my people. Quite literally to about 1,800 of them. And our version of government is much more efficient than yours.

Democracy is the worst – everyone's vote counts!

You've been with many celebs, but who got away?

They never get away. They try, but without their passports, it is difficult. Sure, maybe they hop the wall of my disco, but there is no escape from the desert. Within hours, they shrivel up until they look like a mug shot of Lindsay Lohan.

When you heard your girl Megan Fox was pregnant did you congratulate her?

There are rumours I am the father, but this is literally impossible. It would be the first ever anal conception.

What entertainers would you like to perform for you?

I had Tupac Shakur. He played at my birthday party and all the time he was telling me, "Put your hands in the air, and wave them around like you just don't care." How dare he order me what to do with my hands? I had to get rid of him. And also Biggie Smalls – he ate half the buffet. But I have made love with many celebrities. Britney Spears, Beyoncé and also Kim Kardashian. She is a nice girl, but also unbelievably hairy. When I pulled her panties down, I thought I was looking in the mirror!

SACHA'S LEADING ROLE!

The Dictator stars Sacha Baron Cohen as Aladeen, leader of fictional country Wadiya.

"Urgh! Look at the size
of this bogey!"

Sacha Baron Cohen's lawsuits!

- ★ After the release of Borat in 2006, two jug-headed "fraternity brothers" from the campervan scene tried to sue Baron Cohen, claiming they suffered, "humiliation and loss of reputation" after they made some stupid and racist remarks.
- ★ While playing super-camp Brüno, the actor hijacked a bingo game. The bingo caller featured, Richelle Olson, claimed the fracas left her wheelchair-bound and launched a lawsuit.
- ★ After Borat visited an etiquette class and presented his host with a bag of, well, poo, the host wasn't too thrilled and tried to sue for "emotional damage."
- ★ In 2009, Palestinian grocer Ayman Abu Aita attempted to sue Baron Cohen for £70million after a caption in the film Brüno labelled him a "Terrorist group leader." All these lawsuits failed.

F1-inspired Russian supercar

Marussia is having a hard time in F1 but the B2 shows it knows how to make a road car!

- Designed in Russia (hence the name Ma-Russia, see?) but built in Finland, the Marussia B2 was always going to be an unusual sort. It could easily have turned out like an undercooked flan, but no. Not this one.
- The B2 has been styled by a serial killer in a slasher movie – there are slashes and sharp angles all over the bodyshell, with a face/grille shaped like an M – for Marussia, of course.
- Marussia is the first supercar maker to emerge from Russia and the B2 is an evolution of its first model, the B1. The new car shares its aluminium chassis and mid-mounted engine/rear-wheel drive recipe, but with madder looks and more grunt.
- To achieve a weight of just 1,100kg (the same as a Ford Fiesta), the B2 wears body panels made from Formula One-grade composites. In other words, expensive plastic and glass fibre. For all we care, they could be made from honey, because this car makes a Lambo Aventador look like a sausage dog.

"How will anyone see my nodding dog in that tiny window?"

- Don't make the mistake of presuming the lightness means you have to put up with a stripped-out, bone-shaking interior, though. Like its B1 brother from 2008, the B2 is equipped with infotainment galore: a 10Mbps internet connection, a 320GB hard drive for music storage and a built-in plasma screen. Bling!
- There are two V6 engines to choose from. One is a normally aspirated 300bhp 3.5-litre, while the other is a 2.8 V6 turbo that's been groomed by men in coats at British tuning legends Cosworth. The latter might be a smaller engine, but it develops up to 420bhp.

- While a lot of super saloons swagger about with over 500bhp these days, they aren't as light as the B2. Which means they probably can't match the B2's dash to 62mph in 3.8 seconds – identical acceleration to the Ferrari California and Mercedes SLS AMG. Top speed is limited to 155mph.

- Behind the B2's spindly spoked 20in rims lie a German KW adjustable pushrod suspension setup, with Pirelli PZero Rosso tyres and four-piston brakes. In other words, the Marussia B2 will corner and stop as well as it looks.
- Marussia used to design and build its masterpieces all under one roof in Moscow, but public response to the B2 has been so good that production is moving to Valmet in Finland.

- Why Finland? Well, the chaps at Valmet are clever sorts. They already build the Fisker Karma super EV; and have previously built Porsche's Boxster. So quality will remain high, and all 500 pre-orders can reach customers as soon as possible. Yep, Marussia's order book is already full. Sorry, chaps, your (very reasonable) £80k isn't wanted here.

All new Al Murray gags!

Brand new jokes from a brand new tour!

On the recession

"They want to sell off the National Health Service. They shouldn't. It's in a right sh*t state – they'll get a bad price for it."

"We're off the rails. We've got kids who think they're adults and adults who think they're kids. The kids want to grow up, the adults want to watch Star Wars."

"The problem isn't foreigners. This is a welcoming country. It just happens to be full at the moment."

On Britain

"This country is on the brink of fking disaster. It's on the edge of a precipice, on the side of an abyss, next to a ravine. By a hole."

"Traditional British things, like invading countries – you can't even do that any more."

"The right to a vote and the right to a pint both occur at 18. The right to lose your mind then cast your vote coincide and it's a beautiful thing. Of course, you don't see 14-year-olds trying to get into polling booths to cop themselves a sneaky vote."

"In the old days, we had the Cold War. We knew the Russians, if pushed, would destroy all of us. Happy days."

On parenting

"Parenting is the most important thing in Britain right now. It's all about boundaries and making a stand. Do you keep the flatscreen or turn them in?"

"We don't dare hit our own kids any more. We don't dare lay a finger on them because they might be tooled up."

"Toddlers are boring little turds. They're selfish as well – they get in the way of the TV."

"I believe that children are our future. That's why I'm absolutely terrified about the future."

On the Euro crisis

"The Euro crisis is incredibly complicated. It's more complicated than the Dutch being a bunch of fking stone-flakes. It's more complicated than the Belgians being chocolate-obsessed perverts. It's more complicated than the Greeks being dodgy. It's about the Germans, who want to run the world. They've got the whole of Europe by the balls and are squeezing harder, by efficiently creating products that people actually want."

On Scotland

"If you want to be independent, you've got to do it properly. Passports at the border. Barbed wire. Minefields. Lasers, towers, men with machine guns, drones. What I'm really angling for there is Wales being fenced off. The point is, Scotland, go, with our blessing. The only condition is that you take Liverpool with you."

"If Scotland wants to go, go! Jog on. Take the oil, now that there's none left. When you can't think of anything nice to say about each other any more, it's time for it to end. When you can't honestly look each other in the eye and say, 'I love you', it's time to go."

On ladies

"Ladies control the supply. You are the oil and pipeline and the gas station and the pump. You are the supply. We are the demand."

"If you start decorating that fking thing, ladies, if you start sticking on sequins, if you decide to soup it up, you're going to break the world. The second time the gentleman runs into you and you haven't engaged in such a decorative act, he's going to be disappointed. He's going to go, 'Oh well, where are the fking sequins? Where's the runway?' You're going to introduce disappointment into the supply chain, and demand will dwindle. And you'll no longer control the supply and you'll break the world to the point that men might start talking about their feelings."

On men

"Never ask a man what's going on in his head. It's not pretty. This is why men are interested in football. They don't actually like football, but they know they have to fill their brains every waking second with talk of Chelsea and John Terry and fking Fernando Torres. Because otherwise what's the alternative? It's like the stone rolling off the hole."

"I'm going to hold up a mental stethoscope to see what's going on in my head right now. Push aside Formula One. Passing rudimentary knowledge of cricket. Darts scores. Snack register. This is what I'm thinking right now. [Screams.] What the fk? Why are you rearranging my stuff, you cow?"

On sex

"I'm not happy with this whole 'first base' nonsense. First base, second, third, fourth. Life isn't a simple one, two, three, four progression. Instead of baseball, they should use cricket. Cricket involves all sorts of complicated rules that make it far more suitable for the business of dating and trying to get your leg over. Cheeky single? [Whistles.] Leg before wicket? It's not happening this evening."

Wrong. Women aren't bothered about your appearance as long as you're suitably dressed, don't smell and don't have smegma! Stop fussing about what you look like and start thinking about what interests women. Wear something comfortable, let the hair grow on your back, in your crack and round your balls and go and talk to them about something interesting.

Yes, it's definitely a step too far! If she's not satisfied with your c*ck as it is, tell her she can forget it. IT'S TWO o'clock in the morning and a husband and wife are asleep when suddenly the phone rings.

The husband picks up the phone and says, "Hello? How the heck do I know? What am I, the weather man?" and promptly slams the phone down.

His wife asks, "Who on earth was that?"

The husband replies, "Don't know. Some guy who wanted to know if the coast was clear."

AN ELDERLY couple walk into McDonald's and the old chap orders a single cheeseburger, a small fries and one cup of tea.

After taking a seat, the man cuts the burger in half and shares it with his wife before separating the fries in half and sharing those too.

A young man sitting next to them takes pity and says, "Would you like me to buy you a meal?"

The old man replies, "Oh no, we're not poor. We've been together so long that we're just used to sharing everything with each other."

The young chap looks on as the old bloke proceeds to munch down his food, although he notices the old lady isn't touching hers.

"Why aren't you eating?" the young fella, asks the lady.

The old chap butts in, "She's just waiting for the teeth!"

A BLOKE goes into a florist's and asks the lady, "Can you put together a nice bouquet for my wife, please? A really big one, no expense spared."

The florist replies, "What sort of thing were you after?"

The bloke replies, "Well, I'm hoping for sex, ideally!"

Skept Vs the Nuts Question Bucket!

Sell:

The top London rapper on P Diddy, football, Nando's and his mum!

Copy:

➔ THE RULES are simple. We fill our bucket full of ridiculous questions, then a celebrity picks them out at random and must answer whatever they get!

You were "discovered" by P Diddy. Have you been to one of his parties?

I've been to a few. A Diddy party is like no other. You'll ask the butler for champagne, thinking you'll get a glass, and he'll give you the bottle. Champagne, vodka, brandy, whatever you wanted. People had bogies coming out of their noses, they were so fked in the swimming pool. It was one of the best parties I've ever been to.

You're from Tottenham. Do you support them?

I've been so into music that I never really got into football. Maybe when I get to 40, I'll think, "Sh*t, man – I need something I can sit down and put my feet up to." I enjoy watching World Cup or Euro games. In my house I'd support England but if I was in my dad's house I'd have to support Nigeria because that's where my parents are from. When I get older I'll support Tottenham.

Did your mum really get cross when you used to make records in your bedroom?

She got really cross. The classic line was, "Get a proper job." I'd say, "I want this to be my real job." The first time I flew abroad to do a show, my mum was like, "Where are you going, Junior?" "I'm going to Germany to do a show." "Serious? Are you going to carry people's record boxes?" I was like, "I'm going to MC – everyone in Germany's coming to see me." I think she's happy with my job now.

How often do people come up to you and challenge you to a rap battle?

They never do.

Your new album's called The Honeymoon. Which sexy lady would you most like to take on a honeymoon?

I haven't really got that pizazz for girls. I don't have crushes any more. I just want to find some unknown lady, man. Who do I like? It's a cliché but it would have to be Rihanna because she's just one of the sexiest girls in the world.

You released a song called Tinchy Stryder. Are you hoping Tinchy Stryder is going to release one named after you?

Not really, man. People were surprised when I did it. "Is Skepta dissing Tinchy?" They just need to listen to it. People like it, man. I don't expect him to write one back for me.

What's the best thing you've got free since becoming famous?

Clothes, man. They just load you up with so much sh*t. I'll sift through the stuff I like, phone up my mates, "Yo, yo, yo, I've got some stuff here, come and have a little pick," and take the rest to the charity shop up the road.

You used to MC on pirate radio. Would you make a good real-life pirate?

What do pirates have to do? They just have to conquer ships and sh*t. I'd be quite good. If I had an army I'd be alright. We'd be called the Underdogs because people would think I wouldn't be a good pirate but I'd be a fking good one.

Who was the first girl that you kissed?

Bleugh! Put that.

What have you got in your pockets right now?

My Blackberry, my iPhone, my asthma pump, my keys and a Nando's receipt. B-b-bang, bang!

Have you ever been arrested?

I've been arrested at least 15 times. I'm very ashamed of what I did. The first time, my mum and dad came to pick me up from the police station because I was a juvenile. I've learnt my lesson. Stay out of trouble, kids.

● Skepta's new single, Make Peace Not War, is out now.

"And this new type of hat's cool, yeah?"

"These 'knock-knock' jokes just kill me!"

"First prize, a weekend for two in Bognor!"

RAP HERO!

His charity collection technique needed some work

"A Diddy party's like no other. You'll ask for champagne and get the whole bottle!"

15 BIG SUMMER BLOCKBUSTERS!

GET THE POPCORN IN - THERE'S A FEAST OF GREAT CINEMA COMING YOUR WAY!

Will Smith, Tommy Lee Jones, Josh Brolin

What's it about? Will Smith returns in 3D as Agent J, sent back in time to 1969 to stop an alien assassinating his friend Agent K – played by Tommy Lee Jones in the present and Josh Brolin in the past.

FACT: This is Will Smith's first film in three-and-a-half years, since the release of Seven Pounds in December 2008, which means this is the longest he has gone without appearing in a movie since his film career started in 1992.

Stallone, Statham, Willis, Lundgren, Li, Schwarzenegger, Van Damme

What's it about? The Muscles From Brussels is the villain of the piece and Sly promises a "big showdown" between the two action vets as Barney Ross and co avenge the death of Tool (Mickey Rourke).

FACT: The film was shot in Bulgaria, where Arnie had previously shot Conan The Barbarian. Following an accident during filming of an action scene involving an exploding boat, one stuntman was killed and another was left in a critical condition.

Sacha Baron Cohen, Megan Fox, Anna Faris

What's it about? The Borat star reigns supreme as the leader of the fictional Republic of Wadiya, who ends up broke on the streets of New York when a kidnap plot goes wrong. Un-PC laughs guaranteed.

FACT: The film trailer uses archive news footage featuring excerpts of US President Barack Obama and British Prime Minister David Cameron giving speeches in 2010 condemning former Libyan dictator Muammar Gaddafi.

Noomi Rapace, Charlize Theron, Michael Fassbender, Idris Elba

What's it about? Ridley "Gladiator" Scott returns to sci-fi with this Alien spin-off following a team of explorers who think they've found the origins of life on Earth. Reinforced pants may be required.

FACT: The film was originally going to be called Paradise and was set to be a prequel to Ridley Scott's 1979 sci-fi classic Alien, but Scott decided to turn it into an original film, although it takes place in the same universe as Alien and makes many references to it.

Mark Wahlberg, Mila Kunis, Seth McFarlane

What's it about? Family Guy creator McFarlane voices Wahlberg's best mate who's getting between him and his missus – a teddy bear who smokes bong, and has an eye for the ladies and a potty mouth!

FACT: One of the highlights of the film promises to be the "white trash girls' names" scene, which was done in a few takes with no cue cards for Mark Wahlberg, who just wrote down a number of female names that sound "white trash".

Andrew Garfield, Rhys Ifans, Superbad hottie Emma Stone

What's it about? Bullied high school geek Peter Parker/web-slinging superhero Spidey learns how he got his powers, as he takes on mad scientist turned nemesis The Lizard. And the Proto-Goblin. Crikey!

FACT: Rhys Ifans rejected his stunt doubles, and insisted on performing all his own stunts as The Lizard, although many of his scenes were filmed using a special motion-capture suit with a massive cardboard head and claws.

DREDD 3D

7 SEPT

Karl Urban, Olivia Thirlby, Lena Headey

What's it about? This Brit-made sci-fi actioner is a big-screen return for the star of the 2000AD comics, who patrols Mega City One with a huge gun, taking on terrorists peddling a reality-altering drug.

FACT: Unlike 1995's Judge Dredd, which starred Sylvester Stallone as the futuristic lawman, the new film's star Karl Urban (Bones in Star Trek) has confirmed that the helmet will never come off to keep true to the comic book character.

ILL MANORS

6 JUNE

Riz Ahmed from Four Lions heads a cast of new faces

What's it about? Plan B's relentless urban drama (soundtracked by his own forthcoming album) tells the tale of dealers, junkies and gangsters struggling to survive on the mean streets of North London.

FACT: The film is credited to writer and director Ben Drew, better known as hip-hop artist Plan B. Although this is his feature-film debut, in 2008 Drew filmed a short called Michelle (starring Anouska Mond, who's also in this), which acted as a pilot for Ill Manors.

TOTAL RECALL

22 AUG

Colin Farrell, Kate Beckinsale, Jessica Biel, Ethan Hawke

What's it about? Reboot of the sci-fi classic with Farrell discovering he's a spy with implanted memories. In the battle between Euromerica and New Shanghai, he must find out which side he's on to save his life.

FACT: Colin Farrell previously appeared in Minority Report which, like this, was adapted from a Philip K Dick short story, and had originally been developed as a sequel to the 1990 film version of Total Recall starring Arnold Schwarzenegger.

A FANTASTIC FEAR OF EVERYTHING

8 JUNE

Simon Pegg

What's it about? Pegg is a crime writer whose research into Victorian serial killers leaves him a paranoid wreck haunted by a mysterious hedgehog. Sounds like us the morning after the Nuts Xmas party.

FACT: Written and co-directed by Crispian Mills, front man of former '90s psychedelic-rockers Kula Shaker, this "semi-comedy" is the first film to be backed by the legendary Pinewood Studios' initiative to support low-budget British films.

CASA DE MI PADRE

8 JUNE

Will Ferrell, Gael Garcia Bernal, Diego Luna, Genesis Rodriguez

What's it about? The makers of Anchorman return with this Mexican Western filmed in Spanish, with dim-witted rancher Ferrell taking on an evil drug baron. Expect "pistolas", "sexo" and "efectos especiales".

FACT: Will Ferrell spent a month learning and speaking Spanish with a dialect coach for his role as Armando Alvarez. No such language problems for co-star Diego Luna, who plays Alvaro's brother Raul and was born in Mexico City.

THE RAID

18 MAY

Iko Uwais and a gang of Indonesian martial artists

What's it about? When a raid goes wrong, a SWAT team must scrap their way to freedom from the tower block lair of a drug lord protected by floors of henchmen. As you do!

FACT: Every actor who played a member of the SWAT team went through a training program with KOPASKA, the frogman and underwater demolition unit of the Indonesian Navy, to study the techniques used in the force, including weapons and hand signals.

Christian Bale, Tom Hardy, Anne Hathaway, Michael Caine

What's it about? Batman (Bale) faces off against gas mask-wearing brute Bane (Hardy) who gets his super strength from venom serum. Oh, and Anne Hathaway is in as Catwoman and she looks fit!

FACT: Christian Bale has stated that he wouldn't play Batman if the Caped Crusader's sidekick Robin appeared anywhere in the films. Director Christopher "Inception" Nolan agreed not to include the Boy Wonder as it would undermine the dark tone of his series.

Ben Stiller, Jonah Hill, Vince Vaughn, Richard Ayoade

What's it about? Comedy from the makers of Superbad about a gang of suburban dads who become Earth's only hope for survival when their town is overrun with aliens posing as humans.

FACT: Rush Hour star Chris Tucker was originally considered for the role of Jamarcus but it was eventually given to Brit actor Richard Ayoade, better known as super-geek Moss from Channel 4 comedy series The IT Crowd.

Keith Lemon, Kelly Brook, Verne Troyer, David Hasselhoff

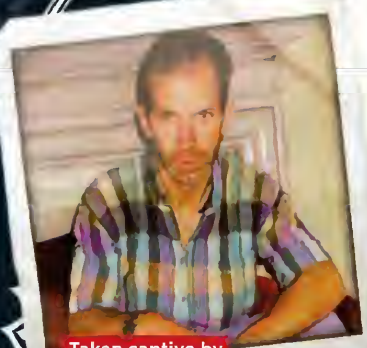

What's it about? The rags-to-riches-and-back-again tale of the Leeds entrepreneur. No doubt he'll also spend a lot of the movie trying to smash people's back doors in or something.

FACT: Lemon stated in an interview that the film is "based on true life events that have happened in my true life... Apart from, of course, 98.2 per cent of it which has been made up simply for entertainment purposes."

KIDNAPPED IN KASHMIR

Taken captive by terrorists, but John Childs lived to tell the tale

Meet the hostage who dared to escape...

BACK IN July, 1995 American John Childs and five other backpackers, took a trip into the Indian Himalayas in the troubled Kashmir region. They went seeking beauty but soon found themselves taken hostage by Islamic extremists. John escaped, the others are still missing or confirmed dead. Here, John tells of his terrifying ordeal...

Hello John. What were you doing in the Kashmir region?

I was in India on a business trip. It was my first visit to the region and I wanted to make the most of it, so decided to spend my last few days trekking in Kashmir.

Were the other people in your party close friends of yours?

I went to Kashmir alone. I'm very private and I didn't want to go trekking with others. I should have turned back the minute I arrived at Srinagar airport and saw the sandbags and soldiers. I didn't know the people I was kidnapped with until we were seized.

How did the kidnap happen?

I'd been up in the mountains a couple of days and I was suffering from altitude sickness. When we got back to the campsite, around 4pm, I went to lie down in my tent. The next thing I knew, there was a militant pointing a Kalashnikov at me. A large group of long-haired mujahideen-type figures had overrun the campsite. They were armed with knives, semi-automatics and handguns.

Did your captors tell you why they were kidnapping you?

The leader told us some bullsh*t story about looking for Israeli spies in the valley. After seizing all our passports, he chose me, Don Hutchings, who was also American, and two British trekkers, Keith Mangan and Paul Wells.

How were you treated?

They never physically threatened us but made it clear they would kill us if we didn't behave. The worst thing was the constant walking. They were worried about the Indian Army catching up with them and kept us going 16 hours a day, climbing above the snow line over some very tough ridges. I was suffering from altitude sickness and I'd bought new walking boots and hadn't worn them in. My heels were rubbed raw.

When did you start to think, "I must take action here"?

I was completely stunned by my loss of freedom. For the first 24 hours, I felt like an idiot and cursed myself for ignoring the warning signs. During the second day, I turned my anger into a clear focus. I was getting out.

How did you escape?

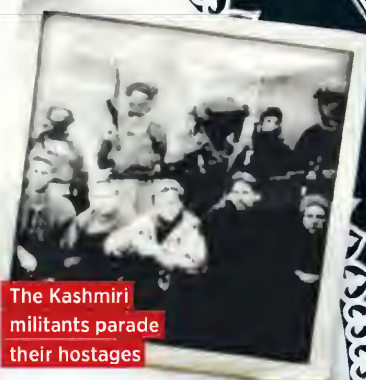

I was suffering from diarrhoea and decided to use it to my advantage as the guards had got used to me going in and out of the hut at night. I waited until about 2am on the fourth day and went out. The guards didn't take any notice. I squatted in the bushes and then ran off. My heels were rubbed down to the bone so I ran in my socks.

How did you know where to go?

On the third day of captivity, we'd crossed a trail that Don said he recognised. He'd been along it with his wife a week earlier. I knew I'd never get another chance like this. That night, we stayed in a nomad's hut at 4,000 metres with a view down to the trekking trail. We could even see other backpackers with their tents down there. When I made my break for freedom, I ran straight up the mountain instead of down. I banked on the kidnappers setting out down the mountain when they found me missing. They wouldn't think me crazy enough to climb even higher. I said to myself that I would only turn back down when I was sure I was no longer being pursued.

How did you survive?

I'd been storing bits of food in

The Kashmiri militants parade their hostages my jacket and socks every night, but as I ran off in the darkness, I realised my light-coloured jacket would act like a beacon, so I had no choice but to throw it away. I ate snow to hydrate myself.

How long were you pursued?

It's impossible to say. I didn't look back. I kept going up until I reached a ridge that gave me a view back down the way I'd come. I sat there for several hours, frozen by the wind and starving. Later that day, I began hallucinating and convinced myself I'd strayed into Pakistani territory.

I knew the border was very close by. I was barely alive and if the helicopter hadn't come, I would have frozen to death.

What was the moment that you reached safety?

I was rescued by an Indian military helicopter, after 15 hours on the run. After I got back to Srinagar, I found out the militants had kidnapped two other Westerners to replace me. One of them was later beheaded. I've never forgotten my comrades: Don Hutchings, Keith Mangan and Paul Wells. X

None of the five remaining hostages have been seen alive since John escaped

● The Meadow: Where The Terror Began by Adrian Levy and Cathy Scott-Clark, is published by HarperCollins, is out now, RRP £8.99.

THE NAKED SHOOT

Holly Peers

Hi Holly! What's the best thing about being naked?
I prefer to have nice underwear on rather than be naked. Big boobs can get in the way if they're not supported!

What's your favourite part of a guy's body?
I like guys' forearms, especially when they have tattoos. But, if I'm honest, I'm all about the face and the eyes.

Ever dream about being naked?
I don't really remember my dreams – unless it's a scary dream or I'm having a sex dream, but let's not go there!

Do you ever go to bed naked?
I do sleep naked. If I'm sleeping with a guy, he has to be naked. I insist!

Who has been the naughtiest on the shoot today?
I think Nicole could be the dark horse. She's one to watch.

Tell us an embarrassing story about being naked.
I've only ever been caught naked once, by the window cleaner when I was ironing!

Should clothes be illegal?
No, I think it's sexier to leave things to the imagination.

Would you prefer being naked on a motorbike or on a yacht?
If I was on a motorbike going fast, my boobs would either be swept under my armpits or give me two black eyes!

If all the girls from this shoot went out, what would happen?
We'd end up in a hotel room in our knickers, order loads of room service and have a laugh.

Thanks, Holly! Finally, what really gets on your nerves?
If everyone has ordered food and it turns up late, or wrong or cold, I go a bit mad! ►

"If we had a night out, we'd end up in a hotel room in our knickers!"

"Nicole is a dark horse – she's one to watch!"

THE NAKED SHOOT

"I don't mind seeing naked women – I've seen it all before!"

Nicole Neal

H

i Nicole! Do you think there should be more nudity on TV?

I don't see why not, as long as it's done comically!

So they shouldn't turn the Six O'Clock News naked?

I think you could have a channel, but it would be a weird channel. In 20 years it might be acceptable.

When was the last time you saw someone naked and were shocked by it?

Today. My boobs look small. You know how it is, you wake up, your boobs are smaller...

Would you rather be naked on a motorbike or naked on a yacht?

On a yacht. I love sunbathing.

You can sunbathe on a bike.

Not really – you've got a bit more privacy on a yacht.

If you could change one thing about your body, what would it be?

Maybe my nails – they're kind of square and I want them to be rectangles.

Who would you prefer to see naked, men or women?

Women. If a naked man was stood in front of me, I wouldn't know where to look. If it's a woman naked in front of me, I've seen it all before.

So, what's the secret to looking good naked?

Lighting! Some lights can make people look amazing.

What's your favourite film?

I've just joined an amateur dramatics group – we're doing Calamity Jane. I love it!

Thanks, Nicole! Finally, what's your favourite thing in the world right now?

My car. It's red with white stripes on the front. I'm really precious about it. ►

"I'd rather sunbathe on a yacht than a motorbike!"

India Reynolds

Hi India! What’s the best thing about being naked?
It’s great! You’re totally free.

Do you ever walk round the house naked?

Sometimes, if I’m away or in an apartment on my own – I do it all the time then.

Do you ever do household chores naked?

I’d do the cleaning in just my knickers. I don’t want dust going just anywhere.

Who would you really like to see naked?

Kelly Brook. She’s got a good body and a great bum. If I was a boy, I’d prefer bums to boobs.

And who would you least like to see naked?

Margaret Thatcher!

Who looks better naked, men or women?

Definitely women. I think men look better in just pants, but because women are curvier they look much better naked.

What’s your favourite part of a guy’s body?

I like nice arms. I’m not bothered about guys being dead skinny or anything, but yeah, nice arms are good.

And what’s your favourite part of a lady’s body?

Bum. If someone’s got a nice bum it just makes them look really lovely. There’s nothing better than a big, juicy bum.

Thanks, India! Finally, what’s the weirdest place you’ve been naked?

I did a flash on the Logger’s Leap ride at Thorpe Park. I got my boobs out when they take your picture. I wanted to buy it afterwards but I was too scared that they’d throw me out! ▶

H

i Emma, how are you?
I'm beautiful, thanks! You?

Not nearly as beautiful as you! So, have you ever been to a nudist beach?
I once went by accident while I was in Ibiza, and then I went back deliberately to shoot photos for my calendar.

Have you ever been locked out of your house naked?
No, but I've been locked out of a hotel room. I was playing knock down ginger naked, and when I ran out to knock on someone's door, Rosie Jones deliberately locked me out!

Should clothes be illegal?
Only on Sunday mornings. It's nice to wake up a bit naked on God's day. God didn't make us with clothes, did he?

What's the most naked people you've been around?
I was on a shoot and there were 11 girls. So there were 22 boobs all out on show!

Do you think there should be more nudity on telly?
Yeah, I'd love to read the news naked. And India would make a great naked weather girl.

When was the last time you were shocked by nudity?
I saw a picture of Zac Efron on Twitter recently, and I was shocked. He's like a Ken-doll – he shouldn't have a willy!

Thanks, Emma! Finally, tell us an embarrassing story involving nakedness.
I had to get naked in front of Liam Gallagher the other day. I was doing a shoot for his Pretty Green clothing line, and I had to be completely naked. Part of the shoot involved me flashing him, which we had to do about 50 times. It was so embarrassing! X

CHELSEA VS BAYERN

SATURDAY Sky Sports

1/HD & ITV1, from 6pm

The big one for Chelsea!

He was throttling the corner flag so hard it turned blue

Friday 18 May

Their Strictly Come Dancing routine was a bit weird

A League Of Their Own

SKY1/HD • 9pm

Fresh from his ball-potting triumph in snooker's World Championship earlier this month, cue-pushing genius Ronnie O'Sullivan turns up for a dose of mad sporty fun, alongside comic Jimmy Carr and Dancing On Ice host Christine Bleakley. What a line-up!

Siri was insulting her again

Not Going Out

BBC ONE/HD • 9.30pm

Lucy gets home from a night on the sauce and thinks she may have done something naughty, but she's not sure what (we've all been there). Anyway, she and Lee decide to get to the bottom of the night's events, even if it means getting very drunk on home-made potato vodka. Always amiable comedy, and the series finale.

The new lift attendant was a hit

Alan Carr: Chatty Man

CHANNEL 4/HD • 10pm

The toothy jester is joined by sexy reality TV star Kim Kardashian and fellow funnymen Sean Lock and Jon Richardson for some topical chit-chat. Nelly Furtado provides the music with her new single, Big Hoops, which sounds kinda rude, we reckon!

SOFA AMMO

TEAM AMERICA: WORLD POLICE

CHANNEL 4/HD • 11.55pm

In the cult classic satirical film's song, "America, Fk Yeah", the F-word is used an almighty 37 times.

Saturday 19 May

Man vs Food

DAVE/HD • 11am

If you've not happened upon this, now's the time to discover it. Adam Richman tours America trying out some of the nation's most absurd junk food servings, and the Yanks being a nation of fatties, you can assume that they're pretty darned obscene. Try to watch it without your mouth gushing with drool. It just isn't possible.

Blackpool vs West Ham

SKY SPORTS 1/HD • 2pm

It's the most lucrative match in world football. But will it be Ian Holloway's Tangerines or Big Sam's Hammers that join Reading and Southampton in the Premier League next season? One thing we can be sure of with these two, there will be goals. Lots of them!

Bayern Munich vs Chelsea

SKY SP1/HD & ITV1/HD • from 6pm

So here it is – the Champions League final and Chelsea's chance to make owner Roman Abramovich the world's happiest billionaire by beating 2010 finalists Bayern. It's doable, but suspensions and home advantage for the Germans will test Chelsea.

Sunday 20 May

Hell On Wheels

TCM • 9pm

Fans of The Walking Dead and Breaking Bad might want to check this new drama out as it's made by the same folks. Anything set in a post-American Civil War Wild West is worth a watch in our book, and this series also offers the tantalising promise of a bloodthirsty vengeance plot and some action-packed drama.

Comedy Gala

CHANNEL 4/HD • 9pm

We love a bit of stand-up here at Nuts, but we love lots of it, er, more. Thankfully, there are bucketloads of jokes in the third annual charity event from London, featuring some of the best gagsters around including Lee Evans, Michael McIntyre, Sean Lock, Kevin Bridges, Keith Lemon, Jack Whitehall and Alan Carr. Superb!

Family Guy

BBC THREE • 10pm

Series ten of Seth MacFarlane's cartoon comedy returns with a bang, as the Griffin family win £150million on the lottery. Peter's gold tuxedo is just one of many awesome purchases as he exploits his new-found wealth. As you'd expect, no stereotype or social group is safe from attack, with the offensiveness turned up to ten!

Monday 21 May

Transformers: Dark Of The Moon

SKY MOVIES PREMIERE/HD • 8pm

More deafening carnage, in which the nasty Decepticons make one final attempt on taking over the Earth, which is confusing as all they seem to want to do is trash the place.

Game Of Thrones

SKY ATLANTIC/HD • 9pm

With just a few episodes to go until the end of this series, each house is having loyalty issues. King in the North Robb discovers someone's screwed him over, while Arya (who's been masquerading as a boy) calls in a favour. Meanwhile, dragon lady (and we mean that in the nicest way) Daenerys goes it alone.

Knocked Up

ITV1/HD • 10.35pm

Likeable romantic comedy starring Seth Rogen as an amiable slacker who somehow manages to pull gorgeous television producer Katherine Heigl and promptly gets her up the duff. She decides to keep the baby, but should she keep the man who got her in the bun-in-oven state in the first place?

ARE MY FAKE BREASTS SAFE?

BBC THREE • 9pm

This caught our eye. Then we realised it was about leaky silicone sacks and dodgy plastic surgeons. Not for us, really.

Tuesday 22 May

● New issue on sale today!

CSI: Crime Scene Investigation

CHANNEL 5 • 9pm

The bodies of three lawyer-types are found dumped in a forest and swarming with flesh-eating beetles. Nice! Naturally, there's no straightforward conclusion, and instead a plot of pesky corruption and cover-ups starts to unfold. Cripes!

NEW SERIES!

Hit & Miss

SKY ATLANTIC/HD • 10pm

This brand new drama from the brains behind Shameless has the most shocking opening two minutes of a show we've ever seen. Chloe Sevigny plays transgender contract killer Mia, who discovers her ex-lover has died, leaving her a son. This opener is a slow-burner, but hold on for the final five minutes which are mind-blowing!

Ghost Town

BBC ONE • 11.10pm

Peculiar man-friendly rom-com starring Ricky Gervais as a socially inept dentist who awakes after having surgery, seemingly able to see ghosts. The spooks then go on to send him on their personal missions to complete their unfinished business. It's a silly flick, but it's actually rather enjoyable all the same.

MY BIG FAT FETISH

CHANNEL 4 • 10pm

All about women paid to gain weight by online fans who like to watch them eat!

Wednesday 23 May

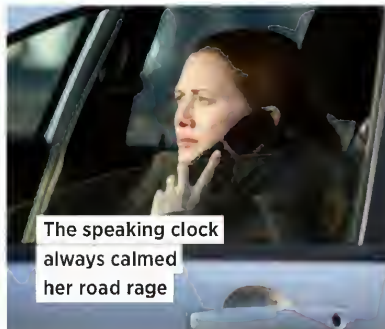

"See? Money can buy happiness. Just look at us!"

The Apprentice

BBC ONE/HD • 9pm

Thanks to everyone being skint, "daily deal" websites have never been more popular, which is why Lord Sugar wants his remaining business bods to negotiate some discounts of their own. Of course, they manage to make a right hash of it all, which is exactly what we want to see happen. Well, where's the fun in them succeeding?

The speaking clock always calmed her road rage

The Killing

CHANNEL 4/HD • 9pm

Apparently it's only been two weeks since Rosie Larsen was murdered. It feels like years to us, but still, the case continues. Lots of questions are asked this week like, why was Rosie's backpack dropped off at the family house? Who's the person captured on camera with Rosie with the weird tattoo? And who bloody killed her?

"No, I'm not that guy from Star Trek"

Surrogates

BBC ONE/HD • 10.45pm

An interesting little sci-fi thriller in which humans experience the rigours of day-to-day life without ever leaving their homes, with their robot "surrogates" doing all the leg-work. Bruce Willis plays an FBI agent who has to head into the real world and investigate a murderous conspiracy, with predictably confusing results.

KILLERS WEEK:
THE RAGGED
TOOTH SHARK

EDEN • 6pm

The ragged tooth shark is so nasty that it actually tries to eat its way out of its mother's womb. It's also been known to eat its unborn siblings in the womb, too!

Thursday 24 May

The floating Smarties were closing in

NEW SERIES!

Don't Trust The Bitch In Apartment 23

E4 • 9.30pm

Amusing female-led comedy about a small-town girl who moves to New York, and gets conned by her new roommate, only for her to turn the tables on the scheming so-and-so.

The doorman's heart just wasn't in his job

House

SKY 1/HD • 10pm

Well, this is it. The last ever episode of House. Don't go thinking the manipulative, egomaniac, dastardly doc will have a life-changing moment and suddenly become all warm and cuddly. But do expect the show to come full-circle as some old faces return to bid farewell. Catch it from the first series on Sky Atlantic.

It was a strange time to take up pole dancing

Faces In The Crowd

SKY MOVIES PREMIERE/HD • 10.45pm

Worthwhile horror thriller starring Milla Jovovich as a woman who, after surviving an attack by a serial killer, develops a condition leaving her ability to recognise faces impaired. Not great when the killer's closing in...

WILD THINGS

SONY MOVIE CHANNEL • 10pm

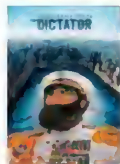

A movie channel of classics, like this, with Denise Richards and Neve Campbell getting it on. Excellent!

Nuts REVIEWS

MOVIES

"Er, when I asked for a fuel-efficient taxi..."

THE DICTATOR

16 May • 15

Jokingly based on a romantic novel by the late Iraqi tyrant Saddam Hussein, this is "the heroic story of a dictator who risks his life to ensure that democracy never comes to the country he has so lovingly oppressed". Dodgy laughs are guaranteed as Admiral General Aladeen (Sacha Baron Cohen) escapes a kidnapping plot and goes loco in New York with Megan Fox. ★★★★★

THE RAID

18 May • 18

A Welsh bloke goes to Indonesia and makes a martial arts film. This Asian Die Hard is a breathtaking must-see on the big screen. ★★★★★

2 DAYS IN NEW YORK

18 May • 18

Chris Rock's a New York chap dealing with his mad French in-laws when Julie Delpy's smelly dad comes to stay. ★★★

DVD & BLU-RAY

The Fast And The Furious franchise had gone a bit tame

THE SITTER

DVD & Blu-ray • 15

Jonah Hill stars in this silly comedy about a loser who ends up babysitting three awkward kids. Predictable it may be, but it's very funny. Hill plays Noah, a drop-out college student living with his mum who ends up taking care of his mum's friend's kids for the night. But nothing is straightforward as he ends up taking the kids with him to a drug baron's den and a bar fight. ★★★★★

SHERLOCK HOLMES: A GAME OF SHADOWS

DVD & Blu-ray • 12

Robert Downey Jr and Jude Law reunite as Holmes and Watson to take on evil Moriarty. ★★★★★

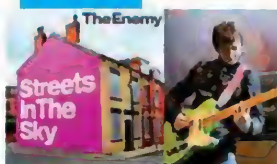

UNDERWORLD AWAKENING

DVD & Blu-ray • 15

Kate Beckinsale's back as Selene, the vampire hitgirl, who is awakened after being frozen for 12 years. ★★★

GAMES

"This is for trashing my flower display"

MAX PAYNE 3

PS3, Xbox 360

Rockstar reboots the New York cop by placing him on private security duty in Brazil's murder central - Sao Paulo. Predictably, it all goes boobs-up and Max is soon shooting his way through gangs, paramilitaries and hoods in gorgeous, glorious-looking slo-mo. Add a strong multiplayer offering and this adds up to the first truly great game of the year. Essential. ★★★★★

DEATH RALLY

iOS, Android

Racer remake gets the mixture of driving and combat right with a top-down view and on-screen buttons that work. Worth a pop. ★★★★★

You could win the jackpot!

Try it for yourself! Here's how to play...

1. Log on to www.nutsgames.co.uk.
2. Deposit £10 (and we'll give you £20 free*).
3. Pick Deal or No Deal slots!

How to play

- The aim is to get winning symbol combinations from each spin of the reels, with the ultimate target being the progressive jackpot.
- Choose your coin size (up to 20p on each of the 20 pay lines) before you play.
- Click the number beside the reels, or the "Bet One" or "Bet Max" button to select the number of lines you want to bet on.

Bonus games

- The progressive can only be won on the Deal or No Deal bonus, but you can win cash on other bonus games Banker's Offer and Mystery Box Bonus, too.
- The Deal or No Deal bonus game only begins if you bet on all 20 paylines and get three Deal or No Deal bonus symbols on any payline. This plays like the TV show, but with the progressive at stake.

'He entered me from behind'

I WAS driving to see a friend when my engine gave up. I called a breakdown company and a very handsome man arrived. He got his toolbox out and started work on the car. Soon our eyes met and I cheekily fondled my breasts and licked my lips, giving him the eye. Our flirting quickly heated up and I was soon begging him to take me over the bonnet. My clitoris pulsed as he entered me deep from behind. The thought of being caught made me orgasm, then he flipped me round and came all over my jiggling boobs.

'We did it on the train'

MY BOYFRIEND and I were the last people on our carriage on a long train journey and I noticed him glancing down my low-cut top. I saw him shifting in his seat as his bulge started growing in his trousers. Slowly, I started to rub him and he cheekily squeezed my boobs through my blouse. Before long, I'd managed to slide between the seats, out of anyone's view, and go down on him right there and then. He was getting really turned on and before he came, he pulled me up and we snuck into the train toilets where he pushed me against the wall, pulled my skirt up and took me until we both orgasmed. It made the journey go a lot quicker!

'She circled my erect nipples'

I WAS at the gym one afternoon and met a friend there who was upset after arguing with her boyfriend. I comforted her with a hug and she kissed me on the cheek. Then, as I moved my face, she kissed me full on the lips. She had a naughty glint in her eye and she hugged me tightly as we sat in the changing room. It was quiet so, as no one was around, she gave me another kiss and said it was making her feel good. Both of us were sweaty in our gym outfits and it made my nipples erect and visible through my sports bra. She noticed my nipples and circled them with her fingers gently and grabbed my bum with her other hand. I grabbed her bum back and stared at her body in tight Lycra – it was making me really wet. She asked me to go home with her and suggested that we take a shower together. It made me very excited as we approached her home where we had a wild time in the water. It certainly boosted her mood – and mine!

Sil via email

'Our fun with after sun'

MY MAN went on a stag do last weekend and as well as getting smashed, he also got well and truly sunburnt. When he got home he couldn't wait to get his clothes off and rub cold lotion from the fridge all over his body. I gave him a helping hand and started rubbing it over his naked torso. After I'd done his back, he sat up and I climbed astride him to do his chest. I squeezed the cold cream onto his pecs and leant forward to rub it in with my big boobs. He loved it as I wiggled about, massaging my chest all over his. I even rubbed his face with my breasts, getting cream all over his chin and cheeks. Soon he was really hard, forgot all about his sunburn and slipped himself inside me to finish the massage off.

10 RUDE QUESTIONS!

And a real girl to answer them!

Lexi

23 Newport

1 Where's the strangest place you've had sex?

"It was in a police station, on a night shift when I used to work there!"

2 What's your trademark move in the bedroom?

"I can remove a guy's underwear with my teeth!"

3 What turns you on?

"Being spoilt with touch and showered with gifts."

4 What's your favourite position?

"I like to get down on all fours with a mirror in front of me so I can see the guy getting hot and sweaty. It's really sexy!"

5 Is it better to give or receive?

"It's better to share when it comes to the bedroom. I like to receive but I also enjoy giving as well."

6 What would you like to try but haven't?

"I'd like to go to a fetish club in Holland. I hear they're very naughty!"

7 Have you ever got it on with another girl?

"I have. In fact, I do so as often as possible."

8 What's your favourite role-playing costume?

"Oh, it would definitely be my naughty nurse costume. It's my favourite scenario to play out in the bedroom."

9 Have you ever made a sex tape?

"Yes. I love being filmed and it's a massive turn-on to know that someone else might end up watching it."

10 What's the rudest thing you've done?

"It's hard to single anything out because everything I do is pretty rude. Ha-ha!"

"I like to be on all fours in front of a mirror!"

TACTICS

BAYERN MUNICH

"The Germans are packed with quality. I expect Jupp Heynckes' team to start quickly. Bayern tore Man City apart at the Allianz Arena in the group stages. It could be a long night for Chelsea."

CHELSEA

"Roberto Di Matteo will be defensive. Unfortunately, Chelsea won't have the suspended Ramires to do all the running. I expect Drogba to play as a lone striker with a five-man midfield."

Champions League special!

Merse on Bayern Munich vs Chelsea!

THE BIGGEST match in club football takes place on Saturday night with Roberto Di Matteo's resurgent Chelsea taking on Bayern Munich at their Allianz Arena. But where will the game be won and lost, and who'll come out on top? To find out we spoke to Nuts legend Paul Merson!

"Who's the fella in black? Wish he'd stop following me"

"Burrrrrrrp! Ooh, too much half-time Tizer!"

DEFENCE

BAYERN MUNICH

"Bayern's strength comes from their full-backs, who love to bomb forward. Captain Philipp Lahm is a world-class player and can cause havoc on the overlap." RATING 8/10

CHELSEA

"Di Matteo will be praying Gary Cahill and David Luiz come through training. With Terry and Ivanovic missing, these two must stay fit or I don't give Chelsea a chance." RATING 6/10

MIDFIELD

BAYERN MUNICH

"Bayern's midfield is awesome, Schweinsteiger will pull the strings in the centre and in Robben and Franck Ribery, they have the best wing pairing in the world." RATING 9.5/10

CHELSEA

"Without the suspended Ramires' running, Chelsea will not be able to counter-attack as effectively. I'd expect Michael Essien to come in alongside Frank Lampard." RATING 7.5/10

ATTACK

BAYERN MUNICH

"I expect Bayern and Chelsea to start with lone strikers who'll be supported by wide men when each side is attacking. Mario Gomez is a fantastic, powerful forward." RATING 9/10

CHELSEA

"Didier Drogba is back to his best and is a big-game player. Chelsea will have to make sure the Ivorian doesn't get isolated, as the Blues are bound to sit deep early on." RATING 9/10

VERDICT

"I hope I'm wrong but I can't see Chelsea lifting the trophy. Bayern having home advantage is a huge plus for the Germans. They're formidable at the Allianz Arena and Roberto Di Matteo is missing too many big players." 2-1 to Bayern

Carroll for England!

Rejuvenated striker deserves call for Euro 2012!

➔ ROY HODGSON names his England squad for the Euros this week and I think Andy Carroll should be on the plane. After an awful start to his Liverpool career, the striker's been in great form of late and could perform a crucial role for the Three Lions over the summer.

England's a country that prides itself on a big physical attack and Andy could be a fantastic weapon if they need to be more direct in the final throes of a match.

It might be too big an ask but, if I were Roy, I'd also try to tempt Paul Scholes out of retirement. The midfielder's been imperious since his return to football and his experience could be key.

As for John Terry, it looks like he could be left out altogether. The writing was on the wall when he lost the captaincy. The FA want to avoid controversy and with a court case looming, Euro 2012 could be a tournament too far for him.

"And this is how I'd snog a lady in the face"

Venkys and Kean must go!

ENOUGH IS enough! There simply must be a clear out at Blackburn Rovers or I fear for the club's future.

We've seen great clubs like Leeds and Man City drop down the leagues and it could happen again unless there are major changes at Ewood Park. The Venkys simply don't have a clue and although I know Steve Kean well, his time has come – he'll never be accepted by the fans and faces an impossible task to turn the team around.

Jack Walker would be turning in his grave if he could see what has happened to his once great club. Venkys out, before it's too late!

KAMMY'S UNBELIEVABLE- OMETER™

UNBELIEVABLY GOOD!

WONDERFUL WIGAN!

The Latics have been fantastic over the last few weeks. It must make a nice change for Roberto Martinez not to be a nervous wreck during the last game of the season.

UNBELIEVABLY BAD!

POOR PUYOL!

Carles Puyol is set to miss the Euros with a knee injury. It's a massive blow to Spain and the tournament as a whole, and at 34, we may not see him at another.

Fab Falcao would be fantastic for the Premier League!

WELL DONE to Atletico Madrid for winning the Europa League. I must say, their Colombian striker Falcao is an unbelievable player. His goals in the final against Athletic Bilbao were world class and I'd love to see him in the Premier League. The problem is, the only team that could afford him would be Man City, and they're pretty decent up front already!

"He went that way, officer!"

THE BIG MATCH!

His pickpocketing technique was a bit obvious

Blackpool vs West Ham

19 MAY • Sky Sp1/HD, 3pm

This season's Championship play-off final is truly too close to call. I expect it to go all the way to penalties but I'm sitting on the fence about picking a winner. Blackpool boss Ian Holloway has performed miracles again this season but West Ham have so many experienced players.

KAMMY'S PREDICTION: 3-3

Key man

Thomas Ince has been a revelation. The winger has terrorised teams. He and fellow wide man Matty Phillips will be key for Blackpool.

Cardiff's colour calamity!

WHOSE IDEA was it for Cardiff City to change their colours and club badge? It's a completely ridiculous plan designed for no other reason than to make money. I'm not surprised it's failed – the fans would never have let more than 100 years of tradition just go out the window!

"This is the best game of tummy sticks ever!"

Pietersen: 'We are the best in the world!'

England star KP on the West Indies, South Africa and staying No.1!

➔ Hi Kevin! Is this the most important summer for England in recent memory?

It's important but you'd still have to put an Ashes series as number one, buddy. We've been lucky in those series to have done well. Having said that, this summer is a huge time for us. The guys are trying to stay the top team in the world. I love that challenge.

It's the West Indies first and then the big one against rivals for the world number one position, South Africa.

I think any England fan will be tremendously excited about what's coming up. The Windies are legends of the game and we'll need to be switched on to beat those guys. Then it's South Africa and I know they'll be coming after us. We'll have to play some good cricket.

Will playing against the country of your birth make this summer more special?

Obviously, I'm always asked this stuff. It isn't the first time I've played against South Africa. Look, I'm an England player, England is my home and I love playing for my country. Of course it'll be extra special against South Africa but I'll approach it like every other series.

Does it feel good you've gone from a South African who plays for England to an Englishman who was born in South Africa?

The fans were naturally unsure but I think I've more than shown my dedication to England. It's a non-issue. There's no-one who gives more for the cause than me. Even when I was getting stick for my background I always had faith in what I was doing.

How good are England?

It's no accident that we're number one. We haven't just turned up and, bang, won games. There's been a heck of a lot of work gone into making us the best side in the world. The fact that we're mates, who genuinely enjoy each other's company and each other's success, plus playing a sport we love, helps. Of course it does.

There was talk that you'd lost your love for the game.

That's probably true. Cricket has given me everything. But I found the grind hard. I lost my enthusiasm and the desire that made me the player I was had gone away.

What changed?

I had a choice – either I let things drift or I could decide to try to rekindle my passion. I chose the last option, putting in the hours and saying to myself, "You're a lucky boy to be doing what you do," I came out the other end.

So where are you now?

I believe I'm batting as well as ever, probably better.

What's the key to England's success this summer?

Sticking together. We have the best coaching set-up in world cricket and the best unit of players. I'm sure we'll finish the season as the world's number one Test team. Nothing else will do.

● The first Test between England and West Indies, begins on 17 May at 10am on Sky Sports 1/HD
